YOUTH CAUGHT BY COPS, NAP PROVES DOWNFALL

Arrested by Whole Police Squad
on Shooting Charge.

LYNN, Mass., Oct. 13.—While a squad of policemen with drawn revolvers stood guard about the home of Nicholas E. Smith today, two other officers arrested Nicholas E. Smith, Jr., at the point of pistols. He is charged with attempt to murder J. J. Carney, of Lawrence, in Montreal.

The prisoner, who had been asleep on a couch in his father's home, tried to escape when the policemen appeared. Smith admitted he knew Carney, but denied being implicated in the shooting of the Lawrence man, who is said to have been fatally wounded.

ONE GALLON MONTHLY ALLOWED GOOD SWEDES

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—With one gallon of brandy allowed to each "good citizen" a month, prohibition is not working overtime in Sweden, according to Senator Alexis Bjorkman, of Stockholm, who is in Chicago.

DOCTOR REPLACES SICK ACTOR AND MAKES GOOD

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 13.—Here's a chance for physicians to earn a little spare change or change their profession—as they wish.

Dr. C. Eugene Fogg of this city, operated on a sick actor and then took his place in the cast, and made a good job of it, too.

POLICE HERO KILLS MAN IN ROOF FIGHT

Veteran Twice Wounded by His Own Revolver Wreasted From Him by Negro.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Patrolman Martin Gill, holder of the Croix de Guerre and Distinguished Service Cross and hero of the police department, shot and killed a man accused of having insulted a woman, after a thrilling battle yesterday on the edge of a roof. Scores of guests in nearby hotels and fashionable apartments witnessed the fight, which lasted for fifteen minutes atop of a building on Sixth avenue.

Gill shot his man only when it became necessary to do so to have his own life. Several times it seemed both men would fall to death in the airway below.

The slain man was identified as Rafael Cotto, a negro.

A woman approached Gill at his post and complained that a man in a hallway at No. 989 Sixth avenue had insulted her. Gill started for the hallway at once. As he entered the man ran upstairs. The patrolman pursued to the roof and struggled with Cotto.

The roof slants precipitously toward the back yard. Cotto wrestled again the policeman's revolver and was trying to point the gun at Gill's head, when James McQueney, an ex-sailor, came to the rescue. Two shots fired by Cotto grazed Gill on the chest and head.

With McQueney's help Gill recovered his revolver. All three men were staggering on the edge of the roof, when, in a final effort, Cotto made another grab for the weapon and Gill fired point blank. Cotto fell and landed in a washbasket. He died within a few minutes.

Gill won his war decorations when he captured a hull single handed and commanded his company when his lieutenant was killed. Within a few months he has rescued two women from drowning in Central Park.

HAD $7,100 IN BANK, BUT TOILED AT WASHTUB

Woman Neighbors Employed From Pity Hoarded Fortune.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Neighbors of Mrs. Alice Berkman, who knew her only as an elderly widow eking out a precarious living by drudgery over washtubs, heard with surprise that after she had dropped dead yesterday the police had found more than $7,100 in her clothing and in banks. In one of her stockings was a package containing $2,100, she had a $3,000 savings deposit and a considerable sum was pinned inside her corset.

Mrs. Berkman's husband died several years ago and she sold most of their belongings and took up her abode in a one-room house on the edge of the lonely prairie. She had been engaged by a number of families to do their washing, and while thus employed at the home of D. N. Harnly she fell dead over the washtub.

SIMPLE LIFE FOR GIRLS ONLY HAPPY ROAD, CLAIM

Women's Council Bans Immoral Dress and Dancing.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—"If the modern girl wants to be happy and to make those around her happy, she must return to the simple life and give up immoral dances and immoral dress," declared Mrs. Ogilvie Gordon, in commenting today upon the results of the meeting of the International Council of Women at Christiania.

Mrs. Gordon, who is president of the British National Council of Women, was one of the British delegates to the meeting.

URGES STREET CAR WAR AGAINST JITNEY BUSES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 13.—Street railway executives were today urged to "stand up and battle for their rights" with municipal authorities who are using jitney buses to fight electric lines.

W. H. Sawyer, of Columbus, Ohio, in making a report on street railway fare systems to the American Electric Railway Association convention.

"The only way that a fair trial of the motor bus or jitney service can be made is for the authorities to insist that these vehicles give the same character of service as provided by the electric cars," said Sawyer.

During the last two years fare increases of 36 per cent in forty representative cities have been followed by an increase of 12 per cent in the number of riders, Sawyer's report declares.

FOILED IN LOVE, KILLS SELF, WOUNDS WOMAN

LEATHERWOOD, W. Va., Oct. 13.—Isaac S. DeCarro, aged sixty-two, died Monday from gunshot wounds, said to have been self-inflicted. DeCarro shot Mrs. Bertha C. Rabia, aged forty, then turned the gun upon himself. It is said the woman will recover. DeCarro, according to the woman's statement, rebuked her for her marriage, which occurred two weeks ago.

FAST-GROWING, PALE, THIN, CHILDREN NEED A GOOD TONIC IN THE WINTER

Prevents Sickness and Fortifies
Them For Cold, Wet
Days.
MAKES HEALTHY,
ROBUST KIDDIES
A child studies better at school;
sleeps better and eats and relishes real food more if given a good health-building tonic at this season of the year. Their little lungs can be strengthened and fortified against coughs, colds and dangerous winter diseases. Their blood can be enriched—roses brought back into their cheeks—their digestion can be improved to take care of the heavy, heatmaking foods like oat meal, meats, cereals, hot cakes, etc., which all careful mothers feed children in winter to keep their little bodies warm and fat. Children need plenty of real food —also a laxative now and then. They need a good tonic at this season and you can get a more modern, more pleasant tasting tonic that will do the work much better than the nasty,
bitter, fishy tasting tonic Grandmo-used to give to her little boys and girls.
Druggists and experts assert that Earle's Hypo-Cod is a splendid nutritive tonic. Children love its pleasant taste and the name Earle Chemical Company on the bottle is mother's assurance of finest quality in medicine. Thousands of mothers use it.
Read what one mother says about it in the article on the right. Then get the children a bottle or better still let the whole family take Earle's Hypo-Cod a few days. It builds you up quickly.
WE BUILT UP OUR CHILDREN WONDERFULLY WITH HYPO-COD
It Stopped Their Cough, Built
Them Up and Look
Fine.
A BLESSING TO LITTLE FOLKS
My 3 children, aged 5, 6, 8 years, were down with the whooping cough last Summer and they coughed for months.
I felt awfully worried for all the old-time remedies failed to stop the coughs and they grew weaker and worse looking every day. We even made a tea out of barks and leaves, but still they coughed. We at first thought the cough would wear away, but as weeks and weeks went by we became alarmed. Every fresh cold aggravated it. We finally heard about Earle's Hypo-Cod and got it at the drug store. Results were wonderful.
It stopped the cough in no time and you could see it building them up day by day. Their appetites came back fine and then they began sleeping good. Then they wanted to play and ramp and now you can see yourself what happy, healthy children they are. They look so much better. If we had only known about Hypo-Cod before we did we could have saved the children a lot of suffering so I praise Hypo-Cod to other mothers all the time. It proved a blessing in our home.
Note:—These same children were given Hypo-Cod as a fall tonic after last winter and they went through the whole winter long without a cold or a cough. Thousands of mothers once they learn about Hypo-Cod, build up their family just as regular as the seasons roll around and ward off all kinds of sickness with it. Children love to take this splendid tonic and extractives and peptides of cod liver, hypophosphites, malt and wild cherry extract are good for the whole family. See formula on the bottle.
The lady who gave the above statement is Mrs. E. F. Rabbitt, 472 Maryland ave. S. W., Washington, D. C.
Thousands of mothers here in this city swear by Hypo-Cod just like Mrs.
Rabbitt does.
